ALMA MATER

Dear A. and T., dear A. and T., a monument indeed,
Around thy base with grateful hearts behold thy students kneel.
We bless the power that gave thee birth to help us in our need.
We'll ever strive while here on earth all loyalty to yield.

REFRAIN

With joy, with joy, dear A. and T., thy students turn from thee
To spread thy trophies year by year from Dare to Cherokee.

II

Dear A. and T., dear A. and T., the signet thou shalt be
Set by our great old commonwealth, proud boaster of the free.
She'd have the record of her worth on granite not inscribed—
Nay, let the children of her birth proclaim it by their lives.

III

Dear A. and T., dear A. and T., henceforth our aim shall be,
By precepts wise and deeds more sure to bless the State through thee:
The arts of industry to wield against an idle foe.
A harvest rich from ripened fields of what thy students sow.

Dear Fellow Aggies,

My senior year has proven to be an eventful year. After assuming the Editor-in Chief position in the spring semester, I along with several others such as Ms. Rosalyn Parker, Mrs. Marva Watlington, Mr. Corey Savage, and Mr. William Hill have diligently and expediently produced a book of tremendous quality.

The theme NO LIMITS was chosen this summer. The yearbook staff feels that the theme is representative of the approaching millennium. Many new advances in medicine, government, and technology are approaching and in order for US to succeed we must be prepared and able to functionally adapt. Many do not take kindly to change; instead they tend to feel that their comfort zone is being violated when adjustments are needed and made. I ask all of you to constantly keep an open mind and always evaluate circumstances using your own judgements.

I leave North Carolina Agricultural and Technical State University with a strong educational and practical background that I could not have gotten anywhere. I also leave A & T with an even stronger foundation in self and God. I now leave you with one of the many sayings my mother tells me: "You have to know your past in order not to repeat it in the future." Change is inevitable; set NO LIMITS!

AGGIE PRIDE!

Lee N Whitener

Dear Family,

For the past century, North Carolina Agricultural and Technical State University has transformed the seemingly elusive dreams of African American men and women into tangible realities. As a new century dawns, we as Aggies must commit ourselves to the perpetual existence of our "dream factory."

If we are to enjoy continued prosperity, we must persevere the university for our sons and daughters. I am the son of an Aggie. In 1964, my father, the late Johnny E. Hill, left North Carolina A&T weighted with ambition and determination. Some thirty-five years later, I leave the university with equal zeal and desire. North Carolina A&T has properly equipped me to conquer the giants of society and to also make liars of the voices who tell me what I can and cannot do.

This university has given me the precious gift of knowledge and the rare gift of friendship. The knowledge I have received has undoubtedly prepared me for my chosen career in veterinary oncology. I will carry the friendships that have evolved throughout my life. My favorite book reads, "To whom much is given, much is required." If this is true, I am forever indebted to North Carolina A&T.

As assistant editor of the 1999 Ayantee, I am pleased to offer this historical record of our beloved institution. The theme "No Limits" is most appropriate as Aggies prepare to seize the day in a new and uncertain millennium. This publication would not have been possible without the diligent efforts of Ms. Lee Whitener, Mrs. Marva Watlington, and Ms. Rosalynn Parker. I humbly thank all of these individuals for trusting my insight and direction. The task was awesome, yet we accepted the challenge. With immense "Aggie Pride" the staff of the 1999 Ayantee Yearbook submits to you the fruit of our labor.

In the spirit of love,

William Allen Hill

James Barnhill, an adjunct professor in the visual arts department, was commissioned by Montoursville, PA, to do a sculpture in memory of the victims killed in the TWA Flight 800 crash. He will sculpt a 7-foot angel as a memorial to the students, teachers and chaperones who died in the 1996 crash. The work will be cast in bronze and installed in Montoursville in June. The angel will be completed on campus with the aid of students.

The Founding of an Institution

Founders' Day Observance

October 28, 1998

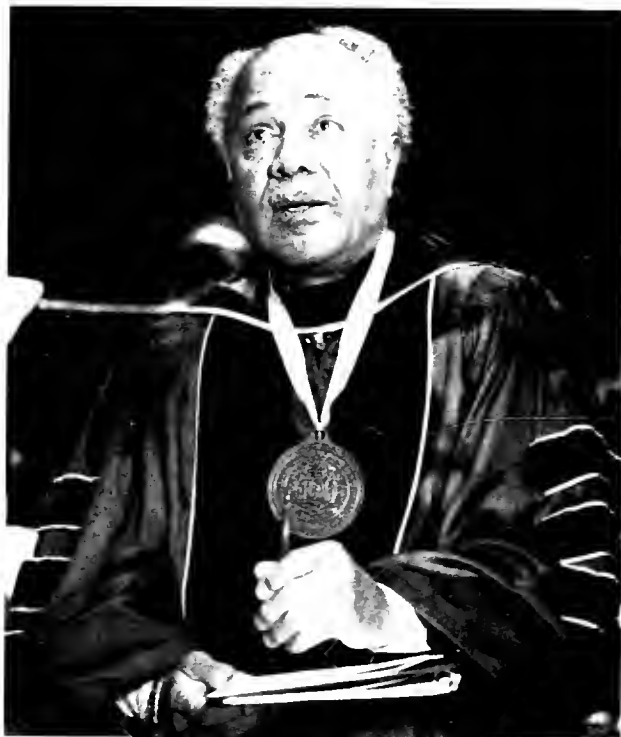

Benjamin Carson, MD, Keynote Speaker

North Carolina Agricultural and Technical State University was established as the Agricultural and Mechanical College for the "colored race" by an act of the General Assembly of North Carolina ratified March 9, 1891. The College began operation during the academic year 1890-91 annex to Shaw University. From its humble beginnings, North Carolina Agricultural and Technical State University has risen to become a national leader in higher education.

The Perpetuation of a Dream

Na'im Akbar said, "Men build institutions...so that four hundred years later their descendants can say, 'That's what he left.'" Over one hundred years after the founding of our beloved institution, her descendants look with unmeasurable pride and remark, "We bless the power that gave thee birth."

Recalling the Past and Shaping Our Future

"Breakfast with the Four"

The Greensboro Four at a Glance

A native of Greensboro, North Carolina, Mr. Khazan graduated from Dudley High School. He earned a bachelor's degree in sociology from A&T in 1963.

Franklin Eugene McCain, above right

Mr. McCain was born in Union County, North Carolina, but he grew up in Washington, DC. After graduating from Eastern High School, he entered A&T and earned a bachelor's degree in chemistry and biology in 1964.

Four Aggies Demonstrate the Best Way to Stand Up Is to Sometimes Sit Down

Thirty- Nine Years After the Historic Event that Catapulted America into the Sit-In Movement, the University Salutes the Courage of the Greensboro Four.

The Greensboro Four at a Glance

Joseph Alfred McNeil

A native of Wilmington, North Carolina, Mr. McNeil graduated from Williston Senior High School. He earned a degree in engineering physics from A&T in 1963.

The Late David Leinail Richmond

Mr. Richmond was born in Greensboro, North Carolina, and graduated from Dudley High School. At A&T, he majored in business administration and accounting.

Remembering the Man

To celebrate the birthday and legacy of Dr. Martin Luther King Jr., North Carolina A&T held a commemorative service, lecture, and candlelight march.

"I have a dream that my four little children will one day live in a nation where they will not be judged by the color of their skin but by the content of their character."

MLK from "I Have a Dream"

"History has thrust upon our generation an indescribably important destiny--to complete a process of democratization which our nation has too long developed too slowly, but which is our most powerful weapon for world respect and emulation. How we deal with this crucial situation will determine our moral health as individuals, our cultural health as a region, our political health as a nation, and our prestige as a leader of the free world."

MLK from Where Do We Go from Here?

When we let freedom ring, when we let it ring from every village and every hamlet, from every state and every city, we will be able to speed up that day when all of God's children, black men and white men, Jews and Gentiles, Protestants and Catholics, will be able to join hands and sing in the words of the old Negro spiritual, "Free at last! free at last! thank God almighty, we are free at last!"

MLK from "I Have a Dream"

"The urge for freedom will eventually come. This is what has happened to the American Negro. Something within has reminded him of his birthright of freedom; something without has reminded him that he can gain it."

MLK from "Letter from the Birmingham Jail"

Celebrating a Legacy

Are We Ready to March into the New Millennium

Kunjufu, Keynote Speaker

Rev. Ronald Weatherford, Lecturer

"In the past, apathy was a moral failure. Today, it is a form of moral and political suicide."

MLK from Where Do We Go from Here?

This will be the day when all of God's children will be able to sing with new meaning: my country 'tis of thee, sweet land of liberty of thee I sing."

MLK from "I Have a Dream"

"If the Negro is to achieve the goal of integration, he must organize himself into a militant and nonviolent mass movement. The movement for equality and justice can only be a success if it has both a mass and militant character; the barriers to be overcome require both. Nonviolence is an imperative in order to bring about ultimate community."

MLK from Where Do We Go from Here?

"I say to you today, my friends, that in spite of the difficulties and frustrations of the moment I still have a dream."

MLK from "I Have a Dream"

Brotha for Sista for Brotha

(Love's Rendezvous)

In the kind of world we live in,
Wouldn't it be nice?
If Brothas looked out for Sistas,
More than once or twice?
Not just because they wanted something
But just to be a friend,
To be that security, that strength,
On which Sistas can depend

In the kind of world we live in,
Wouldn't it be nice?
If when a Brotha was with a Sista,
He could say, "no baby, not tonight
What are you feeling?
What's on your mind?
How can I make you laugh?
Relax
Baby, we have time."
And when a Sista asked him
About his fantasy,
Instead of saying another wom in,
He would say
"Girl it's you,
'cause I'm a fan
of your reality."

In the kind of world we live in,
Wouldn't it be nice?
If Sistas didn't play games
When taking their girl's advice,
And they didn't dis the Brotha
Who really cared for them,
And she would call him back,
Time and time again.
And she wouldn't run off
With the popular brotha.
With who
She had to pretend,
But she ran off with the unpopular brotha
'cause in his mind,
she meant the world to him.
And when the Brotha
Had a hard time,
She supported him, and said,
"You're my man, I understand, you'll always be mine."
And he could satisfy her emotions, to where
They didn't need sex, for their bond to survive,
And to be with each other, meant being alive.
And they were so much into one another,
That when together, the sun never became dark;
And they both vowed to never be apart
And at the moment that they became one,
They decided to express, their physical love,
And instead of just experiencing, an intimate orgasm,
They experienced, an intense, ever-expanding,
Mind exploding, physically imploding, sweet, serene, soul-gasm,
And they rocked each other's world, to another universe.
And they were in a kind of heaven, right here on earth

They weren't in love
With the illusion of being in love,
Their devotion was unconditional,
And the other, was who the other, was constantly thinking of,
And just the thought of each other
Was enough to entice.

Brotha, for Sista, for Brotha,
... If things were that way,
Wouldn't it be nice?

Aggies Line Up to Vote

1998 State Elections and SGA Elections

Elections

When it comes to casting our votes, Aggies line up to ensure that the candidate of their choice gets into office. This year in the state elections Republican Senator Lauch Faircloth lost his seat to Democrat John Edwards. And in our campus election in the fall the new freshmen class council was elected. Aggies know that voteless people are definitely hopeless people.

Seizing Opportunities for the Advancement of Research

This year the Seizing Opportunities for the Advancement of Research Conference was held on campus. This conference allows undergraduate students from around North Carolina to present their research orally or visually through a poster presentation.

Black Medallions

Rais Wilson, Artist/Poet

But see I was already chillin', with the other afro-centric children.
At the age of five others did dread,
the locks upon my head.
Like father I was son,
but kids would poke much fun,
and say my hair was snakes and worms,
maybe I should have had a perm.
Omawale Ujamaa,
Lou is baba, I am Ra.
Spoke swahili, just a touch,
though I don't remember much.
'78 to '79,
positive blackness shaped my mind.
Hottentot, was my grade,
Ashante, Watusi, a higher stage.

After that I'm public schooling,
where the teachers began fooling,
on my blackness, strictly wackness,
strictly Christopher Columbus.
Dumbness, mental numbness, but of this I wasn't worried.
For at home, I'd clear my dome,
mom and pop gave the real story,
of the black original,
traded like some animals,
onto a land, already lived on,
by natives, we'd already known.
About the ankh, the key of life.
About why blacks were not like whites.
About the blood, people, and land, and plus the sun,
under which they stand.
About some Indians east and west,
and even those, right next to me.
And how I'm Indian along with African,
Jamaican, Badian, and Cherokee,
and Panamanian, but still Black though,
original my people be.

Was raised on breast milk from mom's own,
not some cow or simlac.
Cause simulations don't have immunities,
only mom can provide that.
I was raised to be warrior,
and keep my head during chaotic times.
Raised on congas, timbales, and jimbies
sekeres and zodiac signs.
Anansi the spider and his morals,
Ebony Jr. how about you?
Curry goat, cous-cous, and sorrel,
cocoa bread, beef patties too.

So see I knew about that black stuff,
before cross colors and black "X" hats.
Before the big wooden africas,
before black pride became a fad.
Before when dreads were not in fashion,
you were a rasta if you had them.
Yes way back when,
real afros, not chemical blowouts were in fashion.
When you'd shake hands, and bang your chest.
Back when most picks had a fist.
'cept for the folding red, black, and green ones.

Before X-Clan, Jungle Brothers, and Public Enemy was #1,
I had my blackness in tact, not as a fad or for fun.
But indeed it is fun being black, it's a blast.
I'd choose nothing else, if given the chance.
So you see my medallions and facial hair style,
some say a salaam aleikum, so I answer and smile.
'Cause though I'm not a muslim, I understand the connect'
it's my black and proud demeanor, that commands your respect.
It's my black and proud demeanor, that commands your respect.
PEACE, TOO BLACK TOO STRONG.

Yet still taking flight with amazing individuality.

Bad hair day? Here are some of this year's new and inspiring do's on some "headsmart" Aggie women

Aggies Ride in Style

One Man Drama

As a part of the University's Lyceum Series, the play "Expectations of Triumph" was brought to campus. The play which was written and performed by Paul Anderson has been performed at colleges and universities throughout the United States.

Anderson attempted to show the need for the ultimate liberation of the African American soul. The play examined the lives of Frederick Douglass, Paul Robeson and Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr., all of whom Anderson portrayed on stage.

Richard B. Harrison Players

The University's national award-winning Richard B. Harrison Players presented its annual production of Langston Hughes' "Black Nativity" on December 3rd through 7th.

Donna Bradby directed the phenomenal production. The magnificent dances were choreographed by Tina Yarborough. Returning for his eighth year as musical director, Donald Smith provided a spectacular variety of music featuring songs of our native land and hand-clapping, foot-stomping gospel favorites.

The unforgettable production highlighted the dynamic talents of A&T students and the greater Greensboro community.

Aloha!

The Office of Student Activities sponsored a Hawaiian Luau over the summer. Over 100 students, faculty, and staff members were on hand to engage in the festivities. Guests feasted on barbecued pork, chicken, cole slaw, potato salad, and apple cobbler. Other highlights included music by the Hugh Peterson Band. Along with providing great music for the audience, the Hugh Peterson Dancers also recruited several Aggies into their routine.

As the evening grew later, and the sky grew darker, beautiful candlelit centerpieces gave off a luminous glow. A great time was had by all.

Vernell Stallings of the Student Union was sitting pretty while enjoying the fellowship.

Students lined up for a variety of Hawaiian Cuisine

The Hugh Peterson Band really got the crowd in a festive mood.

Look at how these Aggies try to stay in step with the leader of the pack!

Many people came out to enjoy the festivities.

The Hugh Peterson Dancers demonstrated their various dance moves for the audience.

Aggie's Birthday

During the first week of school, our beloved school mascot was honored with a birthday celebration. He turned nine years old! The Union Ballroom was decorated with blue and gold streamers and balloons. This birthday celebration was just a small way to show our appreciation for his hard work.

It wouldn't be a celebration without a cake to honor the guest.

Chancellor Fort enjoys Aggie's 9th birthday party.

For his main course, our Aggie feasted on his favorite, Kibbles and Bits.

Miss A&T and our SGA President took time out to pose with the guest of honor.

To express their love, fellow Aggies crowded around to sign Aggie's Banner.

P

resident Clinton Visits North Carolina

After waiting in the sun for what seemed like forever, these Aggies take a break.

This student took time to study on the bus before hearing the President.

Not many people can say that they have had the honor and privilege of meeting the President of the United States; ten Aggies sure can!

At the "Victory in North Carolina Rally," President Bill Clinton made an appearance at the State Fairgrounds in honor of Senate Candidate, John Edwards.

After an extremely long wait, hundreds of people were told that the building where the President was to speak had reached its capacity. After a two hour drive, our Aggies were not going home without seeing the President. So they waited, with over 500 people and no air conditioning. Two hours later, an announcement was made that the President would speak to the crowd. "I knew he would come," said Ms. Fant of the SGA Office. Within minutes, the President addressed the crowd. "I'm sorry that you all had to wait so long and I thank you for coming. But if it is any consolation to you, you guys are much more cooler than the people in the other building." With that said, the President then shook hands and greeted many of the well wishers. Overall, those who attended were satisfied and thankful to take part in such an event. "I get to tell my children that I shook hands with the President of the United States," said sophomore Deidre James. "I'll never forget this day."

There he is, the President of the United States of America, William Jefferson Clinton

Hundreds of North Carolinians waited hours to meet the President.

The media was in full effect for this special event.

Here, the President takes time to greet his supporters.

G et Acquainted

Each year during Freshmen Orientation, the Office of Student Activities and the Student Government Association sponsor a "Get Acquainted Hour." Incoming freshmen are given an opportunity to meet members of several campus organizations and learn more about them.

Several Aggies came out for food and fun.

Moving In

It's a different world!

For nearly twenty years you have been under your parents' guidance and supervision. Now all of that is about to change. The days of mom cooking for you are gone. Now the cafe is where you receive your meals. The time has come for you to learn how to make it by yourself, and live on your own.

"Where do I go from here?"

Are you sure you brought enough?

Time to unpack!

Which one is my room?

These Resident Assistants are eager to help.

What is the hardest part about moving into the dorms?

1. Saying goodbye to family and friends
2. The heat
3. Not knowing anyone
4. Lugging stuff up the stairs
5. Being on your own latest gossip is...

The Cafe, the place where we at NC A&T go to eat, socialize and to catch up on the latest gossip, is definitely one of the most animated spots on campus.

At the cafe, you can run into people that you have not seen in ages, or simply make new friends.

Most importantly, the cafe is a place to go to have good conversation over a good meal.

"What do you recommend?"

These ladies seem to be enjoying their meal.

Each day thousands of students come to the cafe for their daily meals.

A&T's first female Drum Major

Each year, thousands of people from across the country participate in University Day. University Day is a chance for potential students across the country to get a small dose of what it is like to be an Aggie. Students, faculty and staff all work together to make this annual event a success. On University Day, each school provides information about its academic programs. The financial aid offices are open to all, and a phenomenal show is put on by campus organizations. Performances like the NC A&T Gospel Choir, a greek step show and the marching band showcase all feature the talent and variety that we Aggies are known for. Each year University Day proves to be a major hit. What else can be expected from a school that is known world wide for its awesome astounding?

Take a Stand

The 1998 Campus Sing Out Against Violence, Alcohol and Drugs is a program cosponsored by the school of Nursing's Collaborative University-Wide Violence and Drug Prevention Program and its Family Life Empowerment Center. Entertainment was provided by Youth Drill Ministries, N.C. A&T Gospel Choir, Spiritual Travelers and many others. A host of local businesses and organizations helped to make this a memorable event.

Making health a priority

On October 1st, 1998, the High Point Regional Hospital Health Systems' bus came to A&T's campus. Volunteers and workers from the hospital provided free blood pressure screenings as well as free HIV counseling and testing. It is very important for young adults to monitor their health. Recent studies have shown that many feel that because of their ages, they are not at risk for having or developing any health problems.

As one can see, the students at NC A&T believe in living healthy and came out in droves to take advantage of these special services.

Dr. Kunjufu poses with Aggies.

On June 16, 1998, A&T was honored with a visit from Dr. Jawanza Kunjufu. The renowned educator conducts over 30 different workshops which focus on how to save Black American youth and how to stop the destruction of the endangered Black male in America. For his visit to A&T, Dr. Kunjufu's presentation focused on "Developing Positive Self-Images and Discipline in Black Children." Dr. Kunjufu believes that we need to instill motivation in black youth to deal with the high drop-out rate among Black youth in public schools. Dr. Kunjufu has been a guest on the Oprah Winfrey Show, Tony Brown's Journal, the Sally Raphael Show and Black Entertainment Television (BET). Yet, one of his memorable moments was as a speaker at the historic Million Man March.

In addition to being a recognized educator and popular speaker, Kunjufu is also president of the Chicago-based communications company, African-American Images. Some of his publications include: Why Most Black Men Don't Go to Church; To Be Popular or Smart: The Black Peer Group; Hip-Hop vs. MAAT: A Psycho/Social Analysis of Values; Countering the Conspiracy to Destroy Black Youth; and The Power, Passion, and Pain of Black Love.

Diversity

In order to be successful in this world it not only takes intellect but also the ability to communicate effectively. This diversity workshop exposed students to the information they need in order to work with people of all of races as well as gender. Many students reminisced on situations they encountered and later discussed ways of avoiding conflict.

The Holocaust: Never Again

Students from A&T Tour The United States Holocaust Museum

November 13th - 15th

The group comprised of: Teresa Baker, Tina McGee, Helen Johnson, Montoya Regan, Renata Uzzell, Latrice Stokes, Tomica Wright, Dianna Whitaker, Adrienne Scott, Terry Almond, Sylvia Coran, Wendy Gallimore, Mrs. Marva Watlington, Mrs. Ann Purcell, Mr. Markus Hager, Mr. David Vaughan, and Dr. Cliff Lowery.

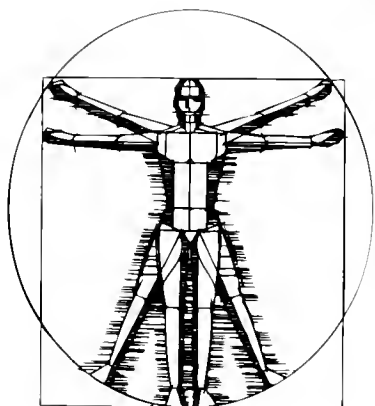

The goal of this trip is to reduce prejudice by exposing students to the new Holocaust Museum which has been dedicated as our nation's memorial to holocaust victims. The museum served as the highlight of seminars and a tour exposed students to life before the Holocaust in the early 1930's, the Nazis' rise to power, and subsequent tyranny and genocide, the liberation of victims in 1945 and the immediate aftermath. Students were encouraged to think critically about the events and personalities surrounding the Holocaust through learning, reflection, and interaction. They confronted their own prejudices as well as those of other students.

After Glow

I'd like to see the memory of me be a happy one,

I'd like to leave an afterglow of smiles when life is done.

I'd like to leave an echo whispering softly down the way of happy times and bright and sunny days,

I'd like the tears of those who grieve to dry

Before the sun of happy memories that I leave

When life is done

In Loving Memory

*Your gentle face and patient smile with such sadness we recall
You had a kind word for each and everyone and were loved by all*

You are not forgotten loved one, nor will you ever be.

As long as life and memory last, we will remember thee.

ALMA MATER

Dear A. and T., dear A. and T., a monument indeed,
Around thy base with grateful hearts behold thy students, kneel.
We bless the power that gave thee birth to help us in our need,
We'll ever strive while here on earth all loyalty to yield.

REFRAIN

With joy, with joy, dear A. and T., thy students turn from thee.
To spread thy trophies year by year from Dare to Cherokee.

II

Dear A. and T., dear A. and T., the signet thou shalt be
Set by our great old commonwealth, proud boaster of the free;
She'd have the record of her worth on granite not inscribed-
-how, let the children of her birth proclaim it by their lives.

III

Dear A. and T., dear A. and T., henceforth our aim shall be,
By precepts wise and deeds more sure to bless the State through thee;
The arts of industry to wield against an idle foe.
A harvest rich from ripened fields of what thy students sow.
